1	Queen Sister	I would like to have a moment of silence for the innocent victims of street violence, who also fell victim to the gentrification and destabilization of the Chicago Housing Authority process whose lives are being lost due to the non-compliance of Section 3. I was here last month and Mr. Charles, I see you have in the notes that I indicated that I had two appointments with housing. I asked you to inform her that I couldn't be in two places at the same time, this was priority due to you all not being able to handle form. You indicated to me that there was nothing you could do about that which insinuated to me that, questions about whether you are here in the people's best interest and whether you're here to invoke and possess any black power because that's what we need and you represent black people sitting in that seat. I have over 500 CHA residents who have been neglected, sir. My house is their house. We are dealing with an unorthodox situation. I would like to know who the Section 3 Administrator is, I've met the Section 8 President and I would like to know who the legal counsel is. We have extended an invitation to you to come out to the community because nobody knows who you are, making all these decisions. We would like you to come out and do a meet and greet and make it a priority.	CHA's Chief Legal Officer is Scott Ammarell and the Section 3 Administrator is Jessica Mallon.
